Dear Parent/Carer,

THE CHAT – PARENTAL ENGAGEMENT SURVEY (NHS)

There is a new programme for parents/carers (sponsored by the NHS) called 'The Chat', which we have recently become aware of. Details can be found here: <https://thechat.scot>

Colleagues from 'The Chat' are currently undertaking a national parental engagement survey which can also be accessed from the link above, and they are looking for your feedback to help improve and shape the services to this programme going forwards.

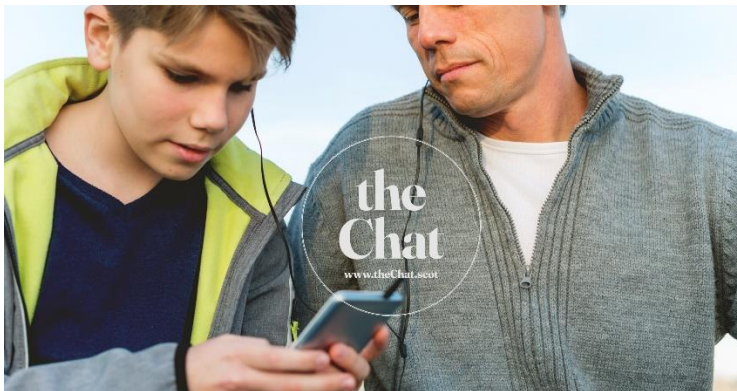

Survey - *closes Monday 3rd June 2024

How do you help your child find their way in the world?

To manage friendships and relationships, being online, or complicated things like consent?

The Chat national survey for parents and carers is now open: <https://thechat.scot>

Please feel free to complete individually. All responses are welcomed, and anonymous.

Thanks, as always, for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

B. Drennan
